

Privacy Policy

Version 1.1, August 06, 2015

This Privacy Policy describes the ways in which Chemspace (referred to hereinafter as “we” or “us”) collects, holds and uses information about individual persons (“users”, “you”, “your”) who visit www.chem-space.com (the “Site”). If you visit a Site that we mention or link to, be sure to review its privacy policy before providing the Site with information.

What information do we collect?

In order to offer the most useful and productive experience to the users, we may collect, store and use the certain types of your personal data such as your personally identifiable information:

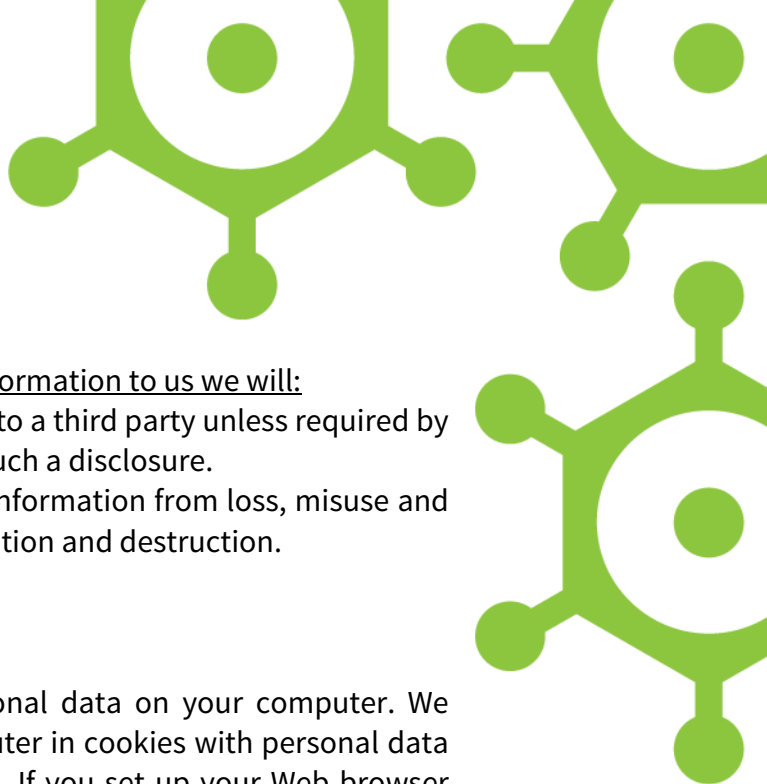

- your name, company, email address, phone number, billing address, and shipping address;
- your Chemspace user ID, user email and password (if applicable);
- payment and bank detail information (if applicable);
- any account-preference information you provide us;
- your computer's domain name and IP address, indicating where your computer is located on the Internet;
- session data for your login session;
- other data: geographical location, browser type, etc.

What we do with your personally identifiable information?

It is always up to you whether to disclose personally identifiable information to us, although if you decline to submit necessary personal information, certain Chemspace services may not be available to you.

We may use your personal information to:

- administer the Site;
- improve your browsing experience by personalizing the Site;
- enable your use of the services available on the Site;
- facilitate sales and purchases of products made via or in relation to the Site;
- send statements and invoices to you, and collect payments from you;
- send you email notifications which you have specifically requested;
- send to you marketing communications relating to our business which we think may be of interest to you by post or by email or similar technology (you can inform us at any time if you no longer require marketing communications to be sent by emailing us at info@chem-space.com);
- deal with enquiries and complaints made by or about you relating to the Site.

If you do provide personally identifiable information to us we will:

- not send, sell, rent, lease or disclose it to a third party unless required by law or unless you provide consent to such a disclosure.
- take explicit measures to protect the information from loss, misuse and unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration and destruction.

Cookies

Chemspace uses "cookies" to store personal data on your computer. We may also link information stored on your computer in cookies with personal data about specific individuals stored on our servers. If you set up your Web browser (for example, Internet Explorer or Firefox) so that cookies are not allowed, you might not be able to use some or all of the features of our Site.

Your privacy responsibilities

To help protect your privacy, be sure:

- not to share your user ID or password with anyone else;
- to log off the Chemspace web site when you are finished;
- to take customary precautions to guard against "malware" (viruses, Trojan horses, bots, etc.), for example by installing and updating suitable anti-virus software.

Privacy Policy Modification

We reserve the right to change this privacy policy as we deem necessary or appropriate because of legal compliance requirements or changes in our business practices. Any changes to the Privacy Policy will be posted on this page and, in case of significant changes we will do a more prominent notice.

Questions or comments?

If you have questions or comments about Chemspace's privacy policy, send email to info@chem-space.com, or contact us via any of the ways described in the Contact Us page.
